Only Weapon of Union is Strike. President of United Mine Workers Says in Message

Strike Spreads to Some Points in Ohio, But Many Illinois Miners Are Returning to Work

(By United Press)

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 3-A strike will be called in all Ohio coal mines if the injunction against the check off is observed, the District executive board of the united mine workers declared today. The ultimatum was announced after a lengthy session today.

All Ohio operators were notified. The statement declared the operators must comply with the contract with the unions. About 3,000 miners are already on strike in Ohio.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 3-Another veiled threat of a bituminous coal strike if the miner owners abide by the federal check-off injunction came from headquarters of the united mine workers today.

President J. L. Lewis declared in the event the operators of any district officially obligate an existing contract, they thereby impair the validity of the entire instrument.

In a telegram to district union chiefs, President Lewis told them to consider abandonment of the check-off system of collecting union dues as a violation of contract and "act accordingly".

The only weapon of the union is a strike. Lewis' assertions were made in a telegram to Frank Farrington, president of the Illnois district. Farrington opened an old sore of internal politics last night by asking Lewis what he meant when he advised his subordinates to "act accordingly".

The telegram from Lewis in reply was as follows:

"Of the seventeen districts to whom this message was sent, you are the only one who found it necessary to ask for an interpertation", Lewis said. Farrington pointed out that violation of the contract would not necessitate a walkout but matters in dispute should be appealed to the joint board of miners and operators, with a strike as the last resort.

As the message was dispatched, Lewis conferred with other international officers and received reports from various fields. These reports show that all except four mines in the Indiana fields are closed by a strike in protest against Judge Anderson's injunction prohibiting operators from collecting union dues from the miner's wages.

The strike had spread to many points in Ohio but the Illinois miners who were on a small protest strike were returning to work. It was estimated that more than 29, 000 miners are out in Indiana.

The old fight between Frank Far rington, insurgent leader of the Illi- IN A STATE OF COLLAPSE nois United Mine Workers, and In ternational President John L. Lawis, cropped out. Farrington said Lewis is "passng the buck" in his telegram to district chiefs directing them to consider any effort of mine operators to abolish the check off as an abrogation of contract and to "treat it accordingly".

Lewis had Farrington's telegram under consideration today and discussed it with associate international officers. He may reply soon under her physicians care. setting forth whether he called upon the men to strike if the operators

SHERIFF CALLED TO INVESTIGATE

Authorities Uncertain as to Cause of Young Farmer's Death Southeast of Manilla

EDGAR ROSS' BODY FOUND

Foul Play Suggested by Blood Spots and Broken Gun-Shots in Ceiling Lead to Suicide Theory

The finding of the dead body of Edgar Ross in his home 21 miles southeast of Manilla late vesterday with a shot through his heart, was being investigated this afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Hugh Jones, and an effort will be made to determine whether or not his death was suicide or an accident.

Sheriff Jones was out of the cary today and was not appraised of the tragedy yesterday.

There was much mystery surrounding the death of the Rush county farmer today, and several details of the shooting give evidence of foul play.

Mr. Ross was 32 years old. His wife and six months old baby were spending the day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Warfield, living north of Manilla, and the dead man's body was found within the house by Jesse Shelton, upon whose farm the family lived. The first theory advanced last night was that the shooting was suicide, but no motive could be discovered for an act of this kind. When his body was found he was lying on nis right side with his hands locked together.

There was a pool of blood about 30 inches from his body, and the ug in the room was disturbed which gave the only evidence of a struggle.

The unaccountable things to offset the suicide or accident theory, were advanced. The shotgun was found across the room, with the stock broken and there was blood spots in the doorway between the kitchen and the room where his body was found.

The fact that the shotgun was broken might suggest a struggle, or the assailant might have attempt to destroy the evidence, changed his mind, or have been frightened away before he had completed the job.

The bloody stains in the doorway causes considerable speculation regarding the murder theory. The dead man did not have blood on his hands, or on the soles of his shoes, the investigation disclosed when County Coroner W. E. Barnum made his second investigation this morn-

One of the shots evidently was day afternoon and will be taken to made with the gun pointing upward, the late residence, and the funeral as the shots lodged in the ceiling of the room, and this observation would make the suicide theory look good.

> Mrs. Warfield, mother of Mrs. Ross, called vesterday morning and ook her daughter and child to her home to spend the day, and she told the coroner that as she drove along the road near the house, she saw a man with a gun along the river

> This fact, however, could not mean much at this time of the year as there are many hunters now taking advantage of the open season on

THREAT OF STRIKE SEEN IN STATEMENT

Meanwhile reports reached union headquarters of few more mine workers joining in the sporadic strike which already has claimed more than 30,000 in protest against Judge Anderson's check-off injunction. The majority of the strikers are in Indiana with a few in Ohio. Miners in the Pittsburgh district have been advised their employers will obey the injunction but reports have not reached international headquarters early today that they had walked

Under the interpretation of Lews' message before Farrington quesioned its meaning, miners in sixeen states numbering 350,000 would ave struck tying up the bituminous fields if the operators had refused, to deduct the union dues from the miners wage under the prohibited check-off. The strike would have fallen on November 10, next pay day for the miners.

Until Lewis replies to Farrington and the meaning of his original message is clarified, there is some queston as to whether there will be a strike or not.

Farrington raised the point that under the wage contract with the operator, any violation of the agreement shall not be followed by a strike as the last resort.

"Is this what you want us to do?" Farrington asked. "This is no time for 'passing the buck".

Counsel for both the union and the operators were to go before Judge Anderson today and make formal application for an appeal from his ruling. It was the understanding between the miners and operators that they would work together aganst the injunction inasmuch as both are involved and that the miners would not strike. When t was learned late Tuesday that the injunction had not yet become effective. Lewis sent his telegram to all district union officers.

Illinois Operators Meet Nov. 10

They were expected to return to work today by union leaders as a result of the tele gram sent by Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois branch of the miners union. Farrington urged the men to remain on the job as long as the operators did not abolish the Farrington also sent a telegram to John L. Lewis, president of the Inited Mine Workers of America asking him to interpret his message it. to all union heads informing them o regard the contract between the miners and operators broken if the heck-off was dropped.

"I want to know if it is the desire of the union officers that we call a strike of all union mine workers in this state of Illinois operators refuse to collect dues and assessments." Farrington said.

Aim to Prevent Walkout

Pittsburgh, Pa. Nov. 3-Officials of district No. 5, United Mine Workers of America went into session here today to prevent a walkout of over forty thousand coal miners in Western Pennsylvania.

The strike was threatened follow ng action by the Pittsburgh Coal Producers Association discontinung the practice of deducting dues and other union charges from coal miners wages.

Miners and Operators Meet

Columbus, O., Nov. 3.—Separate neetings of operators and union eaders here today will decide whether there will be a general strike in he Ohio and Pan Handle mining

Strong indications were given by Lee Hall, district president of the United Mine Workers of America that decision to abandon the "checkoff" system on the part of the operators would mean a general walk-

Decision to put an end to the heck-off system would be taken according to the opinion of some miners before their meeting opened. Others indicate a desire to wait until the injunction granted by Judge Anderson should be made permanent before taking such actions.

The City Election

The people of Rushville are asked to choose between two tickets at the city election next Tuesday. Both are appealing to the voters from the standpoint of economy and business in city government.

On the one hand, we have a record and the other nothing. We know what the present city administration has accomplished in the last four years; whereas, the opponents of the city officials now in power are seeking votes on promises alone.

The record of the administration which has, been conducting the affairs of the city of Rushville is not to be winked at. It is bound to command attention when given some thought by the voter who really wants to get at the facts and arrive at some basis for making elections between the various candidates before going to the polls next Tues-

The big outstanding act of the administration which is seeking to be returned to control of the city government for another four years was the refusal to add $7,000 more to the tax burden of the taxpavers of Rushville by advancing from a fifth to a fourth class city. Had the city council permitted Rushville to become a city of the fourth class, salaries of councilmen and other He had none to lose. city officials would have been increased by this amount and it would have come out of the pockets of but notwhen the expected check-fails dition and defamation. present administration to the voters of the city more than any other one. It demonstrates that their promises of business in city government and strict economy are sincere. By adopting a policy of non-action, the council could have permitted the city to become a city of the fourth class automatically, as provided by the law of Indiana, in which case the higher salaries world have been mandatory. Their defense could have been that Boston? The Marshal should come the law classified Rushville as a also to Carolina and feast his eyes fourth class city and that they were on the great-great-grand-daughters One Month to 5 Months, per month 45c entitled to higher salaries. But the administration proved that the interests of the people of Rushville One month to 5 Months, per month 55c were above the individual interests of the city officials, by adopting a resolution providing that Rushville should remain a fifth class city.

> By economy of this character, the city council has kept the city tax rate down when other city rates have soared. What people want most just at this time, when we are emerging from the period of depression following the war, is strict attention to details such as these so that the expenses of government may be reduced to the minimum. Many other instances might be cited to show members of the city council and other city officials, by having the welfare of the city-at heart. have saved much useless expense.

Other evidences of strict economy and business methods in city government may be found in the fact that the present administration has paid off indebtedness amounting to $24,000 which was created by former administrations, has paid all city bonds as they fell due, amount ing to $10,000, and has expended $70,000 in adding to the city water supply, enlarging the city water and light plant to meet the growing needs of the city and has increased the plant's general equipment.

All of these things have been accomplished without creating any debt and without establishing any abnormal tax rates, although the improvements were made in abnorma! years when costs were exceedingly high. Improvement of the city water and light plant was imperative and the increase of the city water supply was absolutely necessary singe exhaustion of the old wells threaten-

With this record before them, the voters of Rushville should have no difficulty in selecting between the two tickets, because here is four years of accomplishment that needs no promises to back it up.

There is, however, a distinct element of danger in that Washington conference on limitation of armaments. Some of our distinguished visitors may want to stick with us, and forget to go home.

CARTER WEEK

Carter Knit Underwear is successfully worn by women with their smartest gowns.

This statement of fact comes from actual test, and because of its health preservation, must be termed the first achievement of the age.

Its patent spring stitch needle weave gives it an elasticity and flexibility peculiarly its own.

It is warm, soft, clingy and it never wrinkles.

It is comfortable and durable.

It is economical because, though evidently different from other regular lines, it COSTS NO MORE.

TO MY FARMER FRIENDS AND FELLOW BREEDERS:-

I am using this plan as the best way I know of to reach one and all of you with a special invitation to be present and see if I can't do you a world of good in giving you an opportunity to purchase real brood sows for the coming spring use. This consignment consists of am selling these boars as an attraction to this sale and believe whoever may secure them will sure have real boars. I have endeavored to have these sows in the very best shape to breed that it is possible to get them in, not fat, but just nicely flushed which puts them in the best condition for large litters. We pride ourselves on having a very prolific herd, our sows averaging close to 10 pigs to the litter.

We also feel a little good over the honor given us at the last State Fair of having the Largest Herd Boar in Indiana. Of course you know that was Frazier's Giant 128545. Old breeders at the State Fair said he could easily be made to weigh 1500 pounds. The gilts selling in this sale are mostly sired by him and out of dams as good and as well bred as any could Believing in the hog business as a good thing, any time, and knowing it to be by far the very best money making proposition the farmers have at the present time, I think I am doing you one of the greatest favors in giving you a chance to purchase this kind of stock, but we are happy in being able to furnish this means to our old Rush county friends to get $1.00 per bushel for those thousands of bushels of good yellow corn instead of having to haul it to the elevator at 30 cents. Boys, let's not haul any corn, let's have a dollar a bushel fer it and all be happy and let the goose hang high. I am optimistic-we are right in the good times from now on.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tabiets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work. People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards'Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects. Dr. F. M. BANK AFFAIRS TO UNDERGO PROBE

Will Probably be First Step of Independents When They Take Office in North Dakota

NON PARTISANS ARE OUSTED

New Officers Promised to Give Industrial Program a Chance if They were Elected

Fargo, N. D. Nov. 3-Probably the first step of Independents when they take office will be a probe of the affairs of the Bank of North Dakota.

Both sides agreed today without complete tabulation, that the initiated law calling for liquidaton of the bank failed to pass when voters! ousted Non Partisan state officials last Friday.

This leaves the Non Partisan program intact, but with three Independent state officers to run it.

As a result of this situation pobitter propaganda publicity in preparation for the regular elections tween vice and decenev. next summer. Both Independents records for getting publicity.

Independents promised to give the posal. industrial program a chance if they were elected. They have the chance. For the first time they will find the books of the Bank of North Dakota the Home Building Association and the Grand Forks Mill and Elevator. project open to them.

"The governor of this state has more power than the czar of Russia in his palmiest days", an Independent leader, close to Governor elect R. A. Nestos, said today.

"We didn't want that power, but the people gave it to us. The Mill and Elevator at Grand Forks will be completed according to campaign promises and the Bank of North Dakota will have to be continued".

Defeat of the initiated measures and recall of the Non Partisan officers is a double rebuke to the recalled officers, he said.

Non Partisans were frankly Independents when they assume Ronald Engleton. She breaks down power will attempt to carry out a door and defies death when she much of the League program and dives into the storm-tossed sea bethus try to defeat the League fur- low. Her rescue by Andrew Bourne. ther with their own weapons.

The Independents brought about the recall—a weapon given them by the Non-Partisan legislature. The measures initiated by them were not designed to obliterate the League program, but to alter it according to Independent ideas.

"If the independents carry out the industrial program now, they may succeed in making the league largely unnecessary and thus kill it" a Non partisan leader said. "We did not want the offices we wanted the program".

At The Mystic Tomorrow

Many extraordinary situations abound in "The Dangerous Moment," the Universal photodrama of life and love in Greenwich Village which will be shown at the Mystic Theatre on Friday with Carmel Myers in the starring role.

Sylvia, a pretty little waitress in the notorious Black Beetle Cafe of the Bohemian Quarter, is the individual around whom the maelstrom of drama swirls in this strange and hectic story. She is first seen at work in the noisy little rendezvous of radicals, serving cocktails in tea cups, skilfully evading the advances of intermitten lovers and trying, withal, to adapt herself to a situation for beneath her beauty and intelligence. Then over the Black Beetle falls the shroud of tragedy. The son of the owner has been murdered The police rush into the hazy room for Sylvia. She was seen to have struck at the man with a chair when he tried to kiss her and it was evident that she had killed him.

The drag net that is thrown around New York for Sylvia has just one loophole and that is through from her pursuers, for she believes that she has killed in a just cause. Just how she escaped is told in a screen. Marcel de Sano directed 'The Dangerous Moment" at Universal City with a supporting cast gas, W. T. EXPECTANT MOTHER Prepared for Baby's Coming

O YOU know that thousands of women never really suffer at child-birth? Perhaps you have thought with many others that this should always be the case. But how?

Let Mrs. Mattie Paul, of Ocilla, Ga., tell you. She is one of thousands who has demonstrated this fact:

"As I am a young mother of one baby, I am writing for free booklet to 'expectant mothers.' I used only two bottles of Mother's Friend before I was confined and had a quick and easy time through labor. I can recommend Mother's Friend to all expectant mothers. I will never go through pregnancy without it."

You, too, can have this booklet for expectant mothers by sending coupon below.

It goes into the features of maternity and gives, in a plain, interesting manner, information about what the mother needs in clothing before baby is born; what clothing will be necessary for the baby; an interesting table as to the probable date of delivery; simple but necessary and helpful rules of hygiene to follow, and much other worth-while information. This little booklet also tell about Mother's Friend and the wonderfu good it is doing for expectant mothers.

Don't let false modesty keep you from performing this duty to yourself-your family-and your baby.

EMERGENCY TRAFFIC CUTS CANADIAN TRADE

U. S. Emergency Tariff With Canada Caused a Decrease of Over 50 Percent in Exports

CANADA LOOKS FOR TRADE

Washington, Nov. 3-The United States "emergency tariff" has seriously reduced trade between United States and Canada. The "emergency tariff" went into effect May 28. Between June 1 and August 31, exports to the United States amounted to $67,382,000 a decrease of over 50 percent as compared with the same period last year. During the same time imports from the United States were $132,016,000, a decrease of exactly 50 percent over those of the same month a year ago.

If this rate of decrease continues, the total value of imports for the entire year will be $300,000,000 below that of alst year and the value of exports probably will suffer in

In the meantime, Canada is lookng about for other markets. H. H. Stevens, newly appointed minister of trade and commerce has opened at Vancouver an office for the promotion of trade with the Orient. Canada also is seeking to develop its trade with Mexico and Australia. Such development is facilitated by the government steamship lines.

NATION HAS COAL TO LAST 2 MONTHS

Government Figures Show a Reserve Supply if Production is Halted

Public Utilities and Railroad Systems Vastly Better Equipped With

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Nov. 3-The nation has a reserve supply of coal sufficient to last from three weeks to two months, if production is halted by a big strik, figures obtained today from government sources and the National Coal association

With the first touches of winter already here the coal reserve situation as summarized by the National Coal ssociation follows:

1-Household consumers have not stocked their bins heavily but there is available in retail yards, the country over a sufficient supply to last on an average of three weeks. Taken together the stocks in bins and yards will average approximately a six weeks to two months

2-Public utilities have reserves sufficient to last from two to four

3-The railroads have approxiother weeks supply on wheels.

4-Industries have been buying slowly and have only small reserve supplies.

"Taken as a whole" the Associabecause the public utilities and the railroads are so well supplied."

Coal production during the last few weeks has been speeded up coniderably government figures show The total production thus far this year however, is still at a lower point than during any year since 1909 but government officials do not look on this with alarm because of the business depression.

Reserves in retail yards of some of the principal cities as reported to the association follow:

New York City-Manhattan and the Bronx, three weeks supply, bit uminous and anthracite.

Fort Wayne, Ind, thirty days biuminous and anthracite.

HAND OF THE CAMORRA SEEN IN MAIL HOLDUP

Italians With Criminal Records Locked up as Suspects in New York Robbery of Oct. 24

CONNECTION NOT REVEALED

New York, Nov. 3.—The hand of he Camorra, stretching across the Atlantic to guide a gang of international gunmen in this country was today believed to be behind the $2,-000,000 mail truck hold up here Oc-

Two men were today locked up in Jersey City, suspected of connection with the robbery. They were Italians with criminal records.

The audacity and thoroughness with which the robbery was carried out by four men who threw a sack over the truck drivers head and helped themselves to five sacks of registered mail and the fact the suspects are alleged to be members of a secret society here and to have criminal records led to the belief that the same agencies controlling the "good killers" and the warring bootlegging factions might be higher up in this second largest of American mail robberies.

Michael Arbesi, alias Rafaele De Rosa and Frank Calabrese, suspected of being tools of the Camorra, were held in $5,000 bail each. The police declined to reveal their exact connection with the mail holdup. A widespread investigation has been ordered from Washington.

Health for Aching Victims of Neuritis

When you get a feverish, aching soreness of the arm which seems to have deprived the muscles of power, the trouble is neuritis.

Neuritis is an inflammation of the nerve. Its blood vessels expand, there is excessive heat, and there is a discharge of serum into the cells which soften the muscles and degenerates the nerve. The cause is pressure at the spinal nerve opening, and the correction is Chiropractic spinal aljustments. If attention is given in time, no serious results follow. The tendency of neuritis, unless the cause is removed, is to paralyze the parts affected.

Most Immediate Task for Washington Conference is to Prevent War in The Far East

MUST REMOVE CAUSES FIRST

Policies of United States and Japan in the Far East are Almost in Direct Opposition

> By A. L. BRADFORD (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Nov. 3-The most immediate and impelling task for the Washington Conference is to prevent the birth of another World War-this time in the Far East.

It may be also stated, the honest belief of this government is that before there can be an effective limitation of armament the Washington Conference must first remove potention causes of a future conflict in the Far East.

Thus is explained the reason that prompted the American government to provide for a discussion of Pacific and Far Eastern questions in the Conference on Limitaion of Armament, with a view of reaching a solution of these problems.

This also answers the question that is believed to have been in the minds of a large part of the American people-"Why was the Far East injected into the conference?" The answer given to this question, however promotes another question -"What danger is there of the United States going to war over Far Eastern questions?"

Speculation about what issues might cause a war in the Far East and what powers might become embroiled is dangerous, and, of course, not humanly possible to forecast accurately.

But there is no doubt that the United States and Japan have more reasons to feel concerned about the possibility of a future war in the Far East than any other two pow-

Japan might be warranted or feel so, in calling on her ally, Great Bri- under her military sway a vast area event of such a conflict, under the terms of the Anglo-Japanese Alli-

The United States is utterly opposed to this alliance.

Article 2 of the alliance provides that "If * * * either High Contracting Party (either Japan or Great Britain) should be involved in war in defensed of its territorial rights or special interests * * * the other High Contracting Party will at once come to the assistance of its ally, and will conduct the war in common, and make peace in mutual agreement with it".

It is true that the United States is indirectly exempted from the application of this phase of the alliance, but equally true that this indirect exemption is not to the entire satisfaction of this country. In the 1911 renewal of the Alliance, it was provided by Article IV, "Should either High Contracting Party conclude a treaty of general arbitration with a third power, it is agreed that nothing in this agreement shall entail upon such Contracting Party an obligation to go to war with the power with whom such treaty of arbitration is in force."

This provision was put in the alliance so that Great Britian would not be called upon to go to war Britain had negotiated a convention against the United States, as Great of general arbitration with this country, which, however, wailed of ratification by the American Senate, and, consequently, is not in force. There is a treaty of limited arbitration in force between the United States and Great Britain. however, but the United States government does not regard this convention as applying technically to the Anglo-Japanese Alliance.

The policies of the United States and of Japan in the Far East are almost in direct opposition. No power has violated the American policy of the "Open Door" in the Far East as has Japan, with her network of economic privileges, exclusive concessions and monopolies in China.

Likewise, Japan has done more to encroach on the administrative integrity, and probably the territorial integrity, of China than any other power, while the United States has always sought to preserve the administrative integrity, and probably the territorial integrity, of China than any other power, while the United States has always sought to

District Chiefs Ordered to Consider Abandonment of Check-off Plan Contract Violation

ACT ACCORDINGLY, IS WORD

Only Weapon of Union is Strike, President of United Mine Workers Says in Message

ALL BUT 4 STATE MINES SHUT

Strike Spreads to Some Points in Ohio, But Many Illinois Miners Are Returning to Work

(By United Press)

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 3-A strike will be called in all Ohio coal mines if the injunction against the check off is observed, the District executive board of the united mine workers declared today. The ultimatum was announced after a lengthy session today.

All Ohio operators were notified. The statement declared the operators must comply with the contract with the unions, About 3,000 miners are already on strike in Ohio.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 3-Another veiled threat of a bituminous coal strike if the miner owners abide by the federal check-off injunction came from headquarters of the united mine workers today.

President J. L. Lewis declared in the event the operators of any district officially obligate an existing contract, they thereby impair the validity of the entire instrument.

In a telegram to district union chiefs, President Lewis told them to consider abandonment of the check-off system of collecting union dues as a violation of contract and "act accordingly".

The only weapon of the union is a strike. Lewis' assertions were made in a telegram to Frank Farrington, president of the Illnois district. Farrington opened an old sore of internal politics last night by asking Lewis what he meant when he advised his subordinates to "act accordingly".

The telegram from Lewis in reply was as follows:

"Of the seventeen districts to whom this message was sent, you are the only one who found it nee essary to ask for an interpertation", Lewis said. Farrington pointed out that violation of the contract would not necessitate a walkout but matters in dispute should be appealed to the joint board of miners and operators, with a strike as the last resort.

As the message was dispatched, Lewis conferred with other international officers and received reports from various fields. These reports show that all except four mines in the Indiana fields are closed by a strike in protest against mines. Judge Anderson's injunction prolibiting operators from collecting union dues from the miner's wages.

The strike had spread to many points in Ohio but the Illinois miners who were on a small protest strike were returning to work. It was estimated that more than 29,-

000 miners are out in Indiana. The old fight between Frank Farrington, insurgent leader of the Illinois United Mine Workers, and International President John L. Lawis, cropped out. Farrington said Lewis is "passing the buck" in his telegram to district chiefs directing them to consider any effort of mine operators to abolish the check off as an abrogation of contract and to "treat , it accordingly".

Lewis had Farrington's telegram under consideration today and discussed it with associate international officers. He may reply soon under her physicians care. setting forth whether he called upon the men to strike if the operators Continued on Page Three

This is the first publie meeting held during the campaign and it served to put more life in the remaining days between now and election.

Both Mrs. Gary and Miss Sleeth pointed out that regardless of whether women believed that suffrage for both sexes was right, now that they had been granted the right—to vote, it was a responsibility which they must bear. LOW MARK OF FALL REGISTERED TODAY

Temperature Falls to 27 Degrees This Morning, But Begins to Rise Rapidly After Sunrise

OCTOBER RAINFALL NORMAL

A new low temperature mark for the fall was set this morning when the government thermometer Mauzy registered twenty-seven degrees above zero, according to Elwood Kirkwood. The mercury began to rise rapidly early today, however, and at nine o'clock showed fortytwo degrees above zero. Mr. Kirkwood did not hold out hope for much warmer weather, however, declaring that there was a current of cold air above which might descend at any time and bring lower temperature.

The record for the fall this morning was just one degree colder than the temperature Wednesday morning, when ice formed for the first time since last spring.

The county weather observer also reported an extremely heavy rainfall Monday and Thesday, the total amounting to 1.16 inches. The rainfall for all of October, according to his measurements, was only 2.34 inches, which was .44 inches below normal. The rainfall in September amounted to 5.36 inches, which was 2.44 inches above normal for the month.

Authorities Uncertain as to Cause of Young Farmer's Death Southeast of Manilla

EDGAR ROSS' BODY FOUND

Foul Play Suggested by Blood Spots and Broken Gun-Shots in Ceiling Lead to Suicide Theory

The finding of the dead body of Edgar Ross in his home 21 miles southeast of Manilla late yesterday with a shot through his heart, was being investigated this afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Hugh Jones, and an effort will be made to determine whether or not his death was suicide or an accident.

Sheriff Jones was out of the they today and was not appraised of the ragedy yesterday.

There was much mystery surcounding the death of the Rush county farmer today, and several details of the shooting give evidence of foul play.

Mr. Ross was 32 years old. His wife and six months old baby were spending the day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Warfield, living north of Manilla, and the dead man's body was found within the house by Jesse Shelton, upon whose farm the family lived. The first theory advanced last night was that the shooting was suicide, but no motive could be discovered for an act of this kind. When his body was found he was lying on his right side with his hands locked together.

There was a pool of blood about 30 inches from his body, and the rug in the room was disturbed which gave the only evidence of a struggle.

The unaccountable things to offset the suicide or accident theory, were advanced. The shotgun was found across the room, with the stock broken and there was blood spots in the doorway between—the kitchen and the room where his ody was found. The fact that the shotgun was broken might suggest a struggle, or the assailant might have attempt to destroy the evidence, changed his mind, or have been frightened away before he had completed the job.

The bloody stains in the doorway causes considerable speculation regarding the murder theory. The dead man did not have blood on his hands, or on the soles of his shoes, the investigation disclosed when County Coroner W. E. Barnum made ing.

One of the shots evidently was ay afternoon and will be taken to made with the gun pointing upward,

Mrs. Warfield, mother of Mrs. Ross, called vesterday morning and took her daughter and child to her home to spend the day, and she told the coroner that as she drove along the road near the house, she saw a man with a gun along the river

This fact, however, could not mean much at this time of the year as there are many hunters now taking advantage of the open season on

Wheat Sells at $1 a Bushel

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 3-Wheat sold today at $1 a bushel on Die Chicago board of trade, the first time in five years that it reached that low mark.

The price drifted to the dollar mark in a hectic day of wild trading in the pit. A score of brokers made various efforts to hold the price above one dollar. "If wheat is not worth one dollar a bushel it is not worth a dime," one broker stated in an interview with the United Press, in predicting that it never would go that low.

December wheat opened at $1.023 through the efforts of optimistic brokers but dropped to 99½. Millers were credited with driving down the

WILHELM DONE; NO MONARCHY NOW

Germany Nor Men Who Frankly Strive For Restoration of Monarch System Want Him Back

REGARD HIM AS A QUITTER

Constitutional Monarchy Such as England's Would Not Come to Germany-People Want Democracy

> (U. P. Staff Correspondent) By CARL D. GROAT

New York Nov. 3-Wilhelm of the House of Hohenzollern, now sawing wood at his exile home—Haus Doorn in Holland—has just as good a chance of going back to Germany as Kaiser as I have. The difference in the two cases is that I can't and don't want to, while Wilhelm can't but may want to. A mericans ask the question "Will Wilhelm come back", perhaps more frequently than any other about Germany. The answer is an unequirocal "no", if words and deeds—of the days since the revolution in Germany are anoriterion. Germany doesn't want Wilhelm back, Not even the/men who frankly strike for restoration of the monarchial system in Germany want him to head it.

He is, as the German's say, "er-edgigt"—finished.

To the socialists of Germany-Top _____ 1.00@ 3.50 and they are legion-Kaiser Wilhelm is a quitter. He fled like a coward in the nation's darkest hour, they say, and any attempt on his part or that of over-zealous friends to restore him would be men with overwhelming opposition.

Germany proved what it thought of monarchists, when it put a erimp in Herr Kapp's private promonarchistic "Patsch" last year and since that time the national Ceeing hasn't swung any more in favor of ceturn of a monarchy. The Erzberger demonstration, a demonstration against reaction, showed that the Junkers and the rabid monarchists who seek to restore the old order through assessination and terrorism haven't a chases.

I would scarcely venture to asert that a consutational monarchy, change today. such as England's, would not one day come to Germany. But at the moment, the consciousness of the eight-hour day—about the only Good and choice --- 7.75(a 12.00 fruit of the revolution—pleases the German worker, and he knows if a from the years low. inoanrehy returns he will exchange it for an industrial slavery of 12 to 14 hours a day at low wages.

The men who want a monarchy back are, for the most part, disgruntled individuals, who have lost money or position through the overturn. Released officers curse the new regime.

But for the average man, the republic is satisfactory.Its overturn might perhaps come about through overheavy tax burdens for the promonarchists appeal to the ignorant with the pleasthat things were better-"in the old days"-neglecting to point out that a last war with a staggering debt and new, economic conditions would not make the common man's lot easier, even under a kaiser.

The monarchists talk of the Crown Prince's son as a possible throne candidate; others would have a Bavarian monarch. But the monarchists themselves-with, of course some exceptions—say "Let the republic carry the hod, repair the country, and then let us in, say ten or twenty years, seek to restore a system. Meanwhile reports reached union headquarters of few more mine workers joining in the sporadic strike which already has claimed more than 30,000 in protest against Judge Anderson's check-off injunction. The majority of the strikers are in Indiana with a few in Ohio. Miners in the Pittsburgh district have been advised their employers will obey the injunction but reports have not reached international headquarters early today that they had walked

Under the interpretation of Lewis' message before Farrington questioned its meaning, miners in sixteen states numbering 350,000 would nave struck tying up the bituminous fields if the operators had refused to deduct the union dues from the miners wage under the prohibited check-off. The strike would have fallen on November 10, next pay day for the miners.

Until Lewis replies to Farrington and the meaning of his original message is clarified, there is some queston as to whether there will be a trike or not.

Farrington raised the point that under the wage contract with the perator, any violation of the agreement shall not be followed by strike as the last resort.

"Is this what you want us to do?" Farrington asked. "This is no time for 'passing the buck".

Counsel for both the union and the operators were to go before Judge Anderson today and make formal application for an appeal from his ruling. It was the understanding between the miners and operators that they would work together agaist the injunction inast much as both are involved and that he miners would not strike. When was learned late Tuesday that he injunction had not yet become effective, Lewis sent his telegram to all district union officers.

Illinois Operators Meet Nov. 10

Chicago, Nov. 3 .- Coal operators of Illinois will meet here on Novemer 10 to decide wehther or not they will obey Judge A. B. Anderson's injunction abolishing the check-off

Only about 400 miners have walked out in Illinois fields since the injunction was issued. They were expected to return to work today by union leaders as a result of the telegram sent by Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois branch of the miners union. Farrington urged the men to remain on the job as long as the operators did not abolish the check-off.

Farrington also sent a telegram to John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America asking him to interpret his message to all union heads informing them to regard the contract between the piners and operators broken if the heck-off was dropped. "I want to know if it is the desire of the union officers that we call a strike of all union mine workers in this state of Illinois operators refuse to collect dues and assessments," Farrington said.

Aim to Prevent Walkout

of district No. 5, United Mine Workers of America went into session here today to prevent a walkout of over forty thousand coal miners in Western Pennsylvania.

The strike was threatened following action by the Pittsburgh Coal Producers Association discontinuing the practice of deducting dues and other union charges from coal

Miners and Operators Meet

Columbus, O., Nov. 3.-Separate neetings of operators and union eaders here today will decide whether there will be a general strike in the Ohio and Pan Handle mining

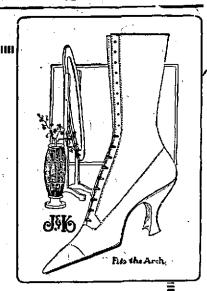

Strong indications were given by Lee Hall, district president of the United Mine Workers of America that decision to abandon the "checksystem on the part of the operators would mean a general walk-

Decision to put an end to the check-off system would be taken according to the opinion of some miners before their meeting opened. Others indicate a desire to wait until the injunction granted by Judge. Anderson should be made permanent before taking such actions.

Against Check-off System

Springfield, Ills., Nov. 3-Free man Thompson, president of District No. 12, of the Illinois district of the United Mine Workers of America declared today for abolishment of the check-off system.

He said abolishment of the systen would be a good thing for the miner's union. He stated that if the operators no longer collected miner's dues through the check-off system, the men would pay their dues personally and would insist upon ervice from their officials.

Thompson figures the union movement will spread more rapidly without the check-off system than with

The City Election

The people of Rushville are asked to choose between two tickets at the city election next Tuesday, Both are appealing to the voters from the standpoint of economy and business in city government.

On the one hand, we have a record and the other nothing. We know what the present city administration has accomplished in the last four years; whereas, the opponents of the city officials now in power are seeking votes on promises alone.

The record of the administration which has, been conducting the affairs of the city of Rushville is not to be winked at. It is bound to command attention when-given some thought by the voter who really wants to get at the facts and arriveat some basis for making elections between the various candidates before going to the polls next Tues-

The big outstanding act of the administration which is seeking to be returned to control of the city government for another four years was the refusal to add $7,000 more to the tax burden of the taxpayers of Rushville by advancing from a fifth to a fourth class city. Had the city council permitted Rushville to become a city of the fourth class. salaries of councilmen and other city officials would have been in creased by this amount and it would No news may be good news at times. present administration to the voters of the city more than any other one. It demonstrates that their promises of business in city government and strict economy are sincere. By adopting a policy of non-action, the council could have permitted the city o become a city of the fourth class automatically, as provided by the law of Indiana, in which case the higher salaries world have been mandatory. Their defense could have been that the law classified Rushville as a fourth class city and that they were entitled to higher salaries. But the administration proved that the interests of the people of Rushville were above the individual interests of the city officials, by adopting a resolution providing that Rushville should remain a fifth class city.

By economy of this character. the city council has kept the city tax rate down when other city rates have soured. What people want most just at this time, when we are emerging from the period of depression following the war, is strict attention to details such as these so that the expenses of government may be reduced to the minimum. Many other instances might be cited to show members of the city council and other city officials, by having the welfare of the city at heart, have saved much useless expense.

Other evidences of strict economy and business methods in city goverunical may be found in the fact that the present administration has paid off indebtedness amounting to $24,000 which was created by former administrations, has paid all city bonds as they fell due, amounting to $10,000, and has expended $70,000 in adding to the city water supply, enlarging the city water and light plant to meet the growing needs of the city and has increased the plant's general equipment.

All of these things have been accomplished without creating any debt and without establishing any almormal tax rates, although the improvements were made in abnormal venrs when costs were exceedingly high. Improvement of the city water and light plant was imperative and the increase of the city water supply was absolutely necessary singe exhaustion of the old wells threaten-

TO MY FARMER FRIENDS AND FELLOW BREEDERS:-

I am using this plan as the best way I know of to reach one and all of you with a special invitation to be present and see if I can't do you a world of good in giving you an opportunity to purchase real brood sows for the

am selling these boars as an attraction to this sale and believe whoever may secure them will sure have real boars. I have endeavored to have these sows in the very best shape to breed that it is possible to get them in, not fat, but just nicely flushed which puts them in the best condition for large litters. We pride ourselves on having a very prolific herd, our sows averaging close to 10 pigs to the litter. We also feel a little good over the honor given us at the last State Fair of having the Largest Herd Boar in Indiana. Of course you know that was Frazier's Giant 128545. Old breeders at the State Fair said he could easily be made to weigh 1500 pounds. The gilts selling in this sale are mostly sired by him and out of dams as good and as well bred as any could

Believing in the hog business as a good thing, any time, and knowing it to be by far the very best money making proposition the farmers have at the present time, I think I am doing you one of the greatest favors in giving you a chance to purchase this kind of stock, but we are happy in being able to furnish this means to our old Rush county friends to get $1.00 per bushel for those thousands of bushels of good yellow corn instead of having to haul it to the elevator at 30 cents. Boys, let's not haul any corn, let's have a dollar a bushel for it and all be happy and let the goose hang high. I am optimistic—we are right in the good times from now on.

BANK AFFAIRS TO UNDERGO PROBE

Will Probably be First Step of Independents When They Take Office in North Dakota

NON PARTISANS ARE OUSTED

New Officers Promised to Give Industrial Program a Chance if They were Elected

Fargo, N. D. Nov. 3-Probably the fifst step of Independents when they take office will be a probe of the affairs of the Bank of North Dakota.

Both sides agreed today without complete tabulation, that the initiated law calling for liquidaton of the bank failed to pass when voters ousted Non Partisan state officials last Friday.

This leaves the Non Partisan program intact, but with three Independent state officers to ran it.

As a result of this situation politicians today foresce months of hitter propaganda publicity in preparation for the regular elections next summer. Both Independents and Non Partisans have established records for getting publicity.

Independents promised to give the were elected. They have the chance, illicit booze and crooked politics. For the first time they will find the shall prevail." books of the Bank of North Dakota the Home Building Association and the Grand Forks Mill and Elevator. project open to them.

"The governor of this state has more power than the czar of Russia in his palmiest days", an Independent leader, close to Governor elect R. A. Nestos, said today.

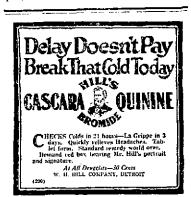

We didn't want that power, but the people gave it to us. The Mill and Elevator at Graud Forks will be completed according to campaign promises and the Bank of North Dakota will have to be continued".

Defeat of the initiated measures and recall of the Non Partisan officers is a double rebuke to the recalled afficers, he said.

Non Partisans were alarmed today over reports that the cave with the supposed dead body of Independents when they assume power will attempt to carry out much of the League program and thus try to defeat the League further with their own weapons.

The Independents brought about the recall—a weapon given them by Dutch actor of considerable Eurothe Non-Partisan legislature. The measures initiated by them were not designed to obliterate the League program, but to alter it according to Independent ideas.

"If the independents carry out the industrial program now, they may succeed in making the league largely unnecessary and thus kill it a Non partisan leader said, "We did not want the offices we wanted the program".

O YOU know that thousands of women never really suffer at child-birth? Perhaps you have thought with many others that this should always be the case. But how?

Let Mrs. Mattie Paul, of Ocilla, Ga., tell you. She is one of thousands who has demonstrated this fact:

'As I am a young mother of one baby, I am writing for free booklet to 'expectant mothers.' I used only two bottles of Mother's Friend before I was confined and had a quick and easy time through labor. I can recommend Mother's Friend to all expectant mothers. I will never go through pregnancy without it."

Few Disturbing Factors Seen But Nation is Set For Continued Improvement in All Lines

ERA OF THRIFT RETURNS

Without Exception Investment Bankers In Annual Convention Are Optimistic Gver Outlook

(By United Press)

New Orleans, Ia., Nov. 3-American business has passed the crisis; few disturbing factors are seen on the horizon and the nation is sel for continued improvement in all lines

This was agreed by bankers from all over the country here for the annual convention of the Investment Bankers Association of America. There will be no boom say the bankers. Progress will be slow, but it will be assurred.

An era of thrift is returning. People are saving money despite depressed conditions and rapidly abandoning the speculative enterprises that held sway during the Without exception the bankers are ptimistic over the outlook.

"There is more smoke in Pittsurgh now than at any time in the last six months," declared John W. McGregor of that city.

"I think I can safely say the worst is over," said R. H. Cassell 🦸 Pailadelphia.

J. W. Mitchell of Toronto said Canada is coming through the deflation period most satisfactorily. Eugene M. Stevens; Chicago, sees general improvement in business conditions in the middle west. The return of normaley in some sections depends on the retailer, is the way Herbert, P. Wright of Kansas City, views the situation. "The sooner the retailer realizes he must take his medicine just as the farmer has and adopts a sales policy in accord with the demands of the buying public, the soofier will conditions in all lines adjust themselves," he suid. Henry O. Thrail, Minneapolis,

EMERGENCY TRAFFIC CUTS CANADIAN TRADE

U. S. Emergency Tariff With Canada Caused a Decrease of Over 50 Percent in Exports

CANADA LOOKS FOR TRADE

Washington, Nov. 3-The United States "emergency tariff" has seriously reduced trade between United States and Canada. The "emergency tariff" went into effect. May 28. Between June 1 and August 31. exports to the United States. amounted to $67,382,000 a decrease ot over 50 percent as compared with the same period last year. During the same time imports from the United States were $132,016,000, a decrease of exactly 50 percent over those of the same month a year ago.

If this rate of decrease continues, the total value of imports for the entire year will be $300,000,000 below that of alst year and the value of exports probably will suffer in like manner.

In the meantime, Canada is looking about for other markets. H. H. Stevens, newly appointed minister of trade and commerce has opened at Vancouver an office for the promotion of trade with the Orient. Canada also is seeking to develop its trade with Mexico and Anstralia. Such development is facilitated by the government steamship lines,

For Your Afternoon Teas

Brednút spread on crackers, rolls, or thin slices of bread is always tempting and delicious for afternoon teas.

Brednut is the finest butter spread that can be made from any materials and by any process. It is made of the purest vegetable ingredients. It is churned daily in a snow-white, sanitary plant and delivered direct to your grocer. It never gets brittle from the cold, or runs from room heat. You can always rely on Brednut to stay fresh long enough for even a small family to use a pound.

NATION HAS COAL TO LAST 2 MONTHS

Government Figures Show a Reserve Supply if Production is Halted by a Big Strike

SITUATION IS SUMMARIZED

Public Utilities and Railroad Systems Vastly Better Equipped With Coal Than The Consumers

> By HERBERT WALKER (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Nov. 3-The nation has a reserve supply of coal sufficient to last from three weeks to two months, if production is halted by a big strik, figures obtained today from government sources and the National Coal association

With the first touches of winter already here the coal reserve situation as summarized by the National Coal sectation follows:

1-Household consumers have not stocked their bins heavily but there is available in retail yards, the country over a sufficient supply to last on an average of three weeks. Taken together the stocks in bins and yards, will average approximately a six weeks to two months supply.

2-Public utilities have reserves sufficient to last from two to four months on the average.

3-The railroads have approximately a six weeks supply with another weeks supply on wheels.

4-Industries have been buying slowly and have only small reserve supplies.

"Taken as a whole" the Associa tion said, "the public utilities and the railroad systems are vastly bet- FOR SALE-1 stove board, good as er equipped with coal reserves than other consumers. But the household user is believed to be in position to augment his stocks now without great difficulty both from supplies in retail yards and because the public utilities and the railroads are so well supplied."

Coal production during the last few weeks has been speeded up considerably government figures show. The total production thus far this year however, is still at a lower point than during any year since 1909 but goyernment officials do not look on this with alarm because of the business depression.

Reserves in retail yards of some of the principal cities as reported to the association follow:

New York City-Manhattan and the Bronx, three weeks supply, bit aminous and anthracite.

Fort Wayne, Ind, thirty days biuminous and anthracite.

Indianapolis-Thirty days both anthracite and bituminous.

HAND OF THE CAMORRA SEEN IN MAIL HOLDUP

Italians With Criminal Records posted this morning. Locked up as Suspects in New York Robbery of Oct. 24

CONNECTION NOT REVEALED

New York, Nov. 3.—The hand of he Camorra, stretching across—the Atlantic to guide a gang of international gunmen in this country was today believed to be behind the $2,-000,000 mail truck hold up here October 24.

Two men were today locked up in Jersey City, suspected of connection with the robbery. They were Italians with criminal records.

The audacity and thoroughness with which the robbery was carried out by four men who threw a sack over the truck drivers head and helped themselves to five sacks of registered mail and the fact the suspects are alleged to be members of a secret society here and to have criminal records led to the belief that the same agencies controlling the "good killers" and the warring bootlegging factions might be higher up in this second largest of American mail robberies.

Michael Arbesi, alias Rafaele De Rosa and Frank Calabrese, suspected of being tools of the Camorra, were held in $5,000 bail each. The police declined to reveal their exact connection with the mail holdup. A widespread investigation has been ordered from Washington.

Health for Aching Victims of Neuritis

When you get a feverish, aching soreness of the arm which seems to have deprived the muscles of power, the trouble is neuritis.

Neuritis is an inflammation of the nerve. Its blood vessels expand, there is excessive heat, and there is a discharge of serum into the cells which soften the muscles and degenerates the nerve. The cause is pressure at the spinal nerve opening, and the correction is Chirepractic spinal aljustments. If attention is given in time, no serious results follow. The tendency of neuritis, unless the cause is removed, is to paralyze the parts affected.

Most Immediate Task for Washington Conference is to Prevent War in The Far East

MUST REMOVE CAUSES FIRST

Policies of United States and Japan in the Far East are Almost in Direct Opposition

By A. L. BRADFORD (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Nov. 3-The most immediate and impelling task for the Washington Conference is to prevent the birth of another World War-this time in the Far East.

It may be also stated, the honest belief of this government is that before there can be an effective limitation of armament the Washington Conference must first remove potention causes of a future conflict in the Fan East.

Thus is explained the reason that prompted the American government to provide for a discussion of Pacific and Far Eastern questions in the Conference on Limitaion of Armament, with a view of reaching a solution of these problems.

This also answers the question that is believed to have been in the minds of a large part of the American people-"Why was the Far East injected into the conference?" The answer given to this question, however promotes another question -"What danger is there of the United States going to war over Far Eastern questions?"

Speculation about what issues might cause a war in the Far East and what powers might become embroiled is dangerous, and, of course, not humanly possible to forecast accurately.

But there is no doubt that the United States and Japan have more reasons to feel concerned about the possibility of a future war in the Far East than any other two pow

Japan might be warranted or feel so, in calling on her ally, Great Brievent of such a conflict, under the terms of the Anglo-Japanese Alli-

The United States is utterly opposed to this alliance.

Article 2 of the alliance provides that "If * * * either High Contracting Party (either Japan or Great Britain) should be involved in war in defensed of its territorial rights or special interests * * * the other High Contracting Party will at once come to the assistance of its ally, and will conduct the war in common, tual. and make peace in mutual agreement with it".

It is true that the United States is indirectly exempted from the application of this phase of the alliance, but equally true that this indirect exemption is not to the entire satisfaction of this country. In the 1911 renewal of the Alliance, it was provided by Article IV, "Should either High Contracting Party conclude a treaty of general arbitration with a third power, it is agreed that nothing in this agreement shall entail upon such Contracting Party an obligation to go to war with the power with whom such treaty of arbitration is in force."

This provision was put in the alliance so that Great Britian would not be called upon to go to war Britain had negotiated a convention against the United States, as Great of general arbitration with this country, which, however, wailed of ratification by the American Senate, and, consequently, is not in force. There is a treaty of limited arbitration in force between the United States and Great Britain, however, but the United States government does not regard this convention as applying technically to the Anglo-Japanese Alliance.

The policies of the United States and of Japan in the Far East are almost in direct opposition. No power has violated the American policy of the "Open Door" in the Far East as has Japan, with her network of economic privileges, exclusive concessions and monopolies in China.

Likewise, Japan has done more to encroach on the administrative integrity, and probably the territorial integrity, of China than any other power, while the United States has always sought to preserve the administrative integrity, and probably the territorial integrity, of China than any other power, while the United States has always sought to preserve the administrative and territorial integrity of China.

As the result of the break-up of the Russian empire, Japan holds
